

Both Butler's boys and girls swim teams had a weekend of complete domination. On Friday evening both girls and boys took first place at the Fairmont Invitational. The boys won the meet with 445 points, Bellbrook took second place with 180 points followed by Eaton (127 points), Miamisburg (124 points), Altar (112.5 points), Springboro (111 points), Wayne (99 points), Centerville (88 points), Oakwood (54 points), Franklin (53 points), Fairfield (9 points), and Dayton Christian (1 point). The Butler girls swam to a first place finish with (332.5 points). The girls from Oakwood placed second with 260 points followed by Centerville (third 251 points), Fairmont (191 points), Bellbrook (118 points), Wayne (81 points), Fairfield (80.5 points), Clinton-Massie (70 points), Springboro (62 points), Miamisburg (43 points), Altar (25 points), Dayton Christian (18 points), Eaton (15 points) and Valley-View (3 points). First place finishers at the Fairmont invitational include: Boys 200 Medley Relay, 1:51.39 (Kevin Ralston, Chris Marshall, Sam Lawhorn, Jesse Gruber), Sam Lawhorn (50 butterfly 26.35), Kevin Ralston (50 backstroke 29.21), Sam Lawhorn (100 IM 1:01.88), Kevin Ralston (50 freestyle 24.09), Erin Adkins (50 breast 36.23), Boys 200 Free Relay, 1:36.82 (Adam Snapp, Jesse Gruber, Sam Lawhorn, Kevin Ralston). Second place finishers on Friday evening include: Girls Medley Relay, 2:12.19, (Shelby Martin, Erin Adkins, Katie Guy, Kaley Barfknecht), Jesse Gruber (50 backstroke 29.24), Adam Snapp (100 IM 1:03.21), Kaley Barfknecht (50 freestyle 28.53), Jesse Gruber (50 freestyle 24.46). Third place finishers include: Kaley Barfknecht (100 freestyle 1:03.75), Adam Snapp (100 freestyle 54.48), Mike Harrington (50 backstroke 29.75), Shelby Martin (50 freestyle 28.73), Girls 200 Free Relay, 1:56.51 (Erin Adkins, Kaley Barfknecht, Taylor Sarsgard, Shelby Martin).